Politics 13 Year Curriculum Map

	AU1	AU2	SP1	SP2	SU1	SU2
Topic and list of key content and/or concepts	Paper 3 - students will complete their study of political ideologies, continuing with Conservatism and concluding with Anarchism. Paper 2 - students will begin their study of US politics by considering the nature of the US constitution and the US judiciary and how these compare to the UK.	Paper 3 - students continue their study of the judiciary and begin to study US elections and political parties, as well as their comparisons to the UK. Paper 3 - students study the nature of the US Congress and its power relative to the US President, as well as making comparisons to the UK parliament and PM.	Paper 3 - students complete their study of US elections, political parties, presidents and the role of Congress. Paper 3 - Students begin their study of US pressure groups and how they compare to pressure groups in the UK.	Paper 3 - students conclude their study of US pressure groups and civil rights. Revision.	Revision.
Key skills	Explanation and judgement. Comparative politics. Political interpretation analysis.	Explanation and judgement. Comparative politics. Political interpretation analysis.	Explanation and judgement. Comparative politics. Political interpretation analysis.	Explanation and judgement. Comparative politics. Political interpretation analysis.	Explanation and judgement. Comparative politics. Political interpretation analysis.
Assessment	FAR 1-3 - formative assessment - students will complete various exam questions as HW to develop their exam skills.	FAR 4 - summative assessment - students will complete an in-class exam. FAR 5 and 6 - students will complete various exam questions as HW to develop their exam skills.	FAR 7 and 8 - summative assessment - students will complete two mock exam papers. FAR 9 - formative assessment - students will complete various exam questions as HW to develop their exam skills.	FAR 10-12 - formative assessment - students will complete various exam questions as HW and in class to develop their exam skills and timing.	FAR 13 - summative assessment - students will complete an in-class test. FAR 14 and 15 - formative assessment - students will complete various exam questions in class to develop their exam skills and timing.
PSHE curriculum, British Values,	Democracy and parliament Human Rights Dignity of the Human Person	Democracy and parliament Human Rights Dignity of the Human Person	Democracy and parliament Human Rights Dignity of the Human Person	Democracy and parliament Human Rights Dignity of the Human Person	Democracy and parliament Human Rights Dignity of the Human Person

CST/Loreto values and vision	Freedom Sincerity Truth Mutual Respect and Tolerance	Freedom Sincerity Truth Mutual Respect and Tolerance	Freedom Sincerity Truth Mutual Respect and Tolerance	Freedom Sincerity Truth Mutual Respect and Tolerance	Freedom Sincerity Truth Mutual Respect and Tolerance
Sustainability - the Politics department is an AI-free department	The role of climate change in current political discourse. Net zero policies in American politics.	The role of climate change in current political discourse. Net zero policies in American politics.	The role of climate change in current political discourse. Net zero policies in American politics.	The role of climate change in current political discourse. Net zero policies in American politics.	The role of climate change in current political discourse. Net zero policies in American politics.
Employability skills and careers links	Explanation Judgement Examination of evidence Consideration of political interpretations	Explanation Judgement Examination of evidence Consideration of political interpretations	Explanation Judgement Examination of evidence Consideration of political interpretations	Explanation Judgement Examination of evidence Consideration of political interpretations	Explanation Judgement Examination of evidence Consideration of political interpretations	